

THE CRYPT SCHOOL

1st November 2018

Dear Parent/Carer

A level and GCSE Exams Summer 2019 – Contingency Day Wednesday 26th June 2019

The summer exams may seem some time away but I wish to share some information with you to avoid any issues next summer. For the first time a contingency exam day has been arranged by the exam boards and added to the exam timetable.

The date that has been set aside as the contingency day is Wednesday 26th June. This means that all students should be available to sit any rescheduled exams up to and including Wednesday 26th June 2019.

Therefore please ensure holidays for students sitting any GCSE or A level exams this summer are booked after 26th June 2019.

The contingency day has been arranged for “GCSE and/or GCE examinations, should sustained national or local disruption arise during the June 2019 examination series.” Joint Council for Qualifications. Hopefully there will be no such disruption and no need to reschedule any exams but it would be dreadful if any student missed an exam because plans had been made prior to the contingency day. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully

Hazel Wasley
