The right candidate will become an integral part of an outstanding department, having overall responsibility for girls' physical education and games, which will include a full extra-curricular programme. The role will also develop each year as more girls are introduced into the school.

The person appointed will work closely with the Director of Sport to develop the current vision and ethos within the department; with the intention to further develop opportunities within sport for both boys and girls at the school. The Head of Girls' Sport will be the figurehead of all girls' sport; they will be expected to engage with pupils, parents and colleagues, to promote positive attitudes towards sport throughout the school.
